The Last Bus Stop

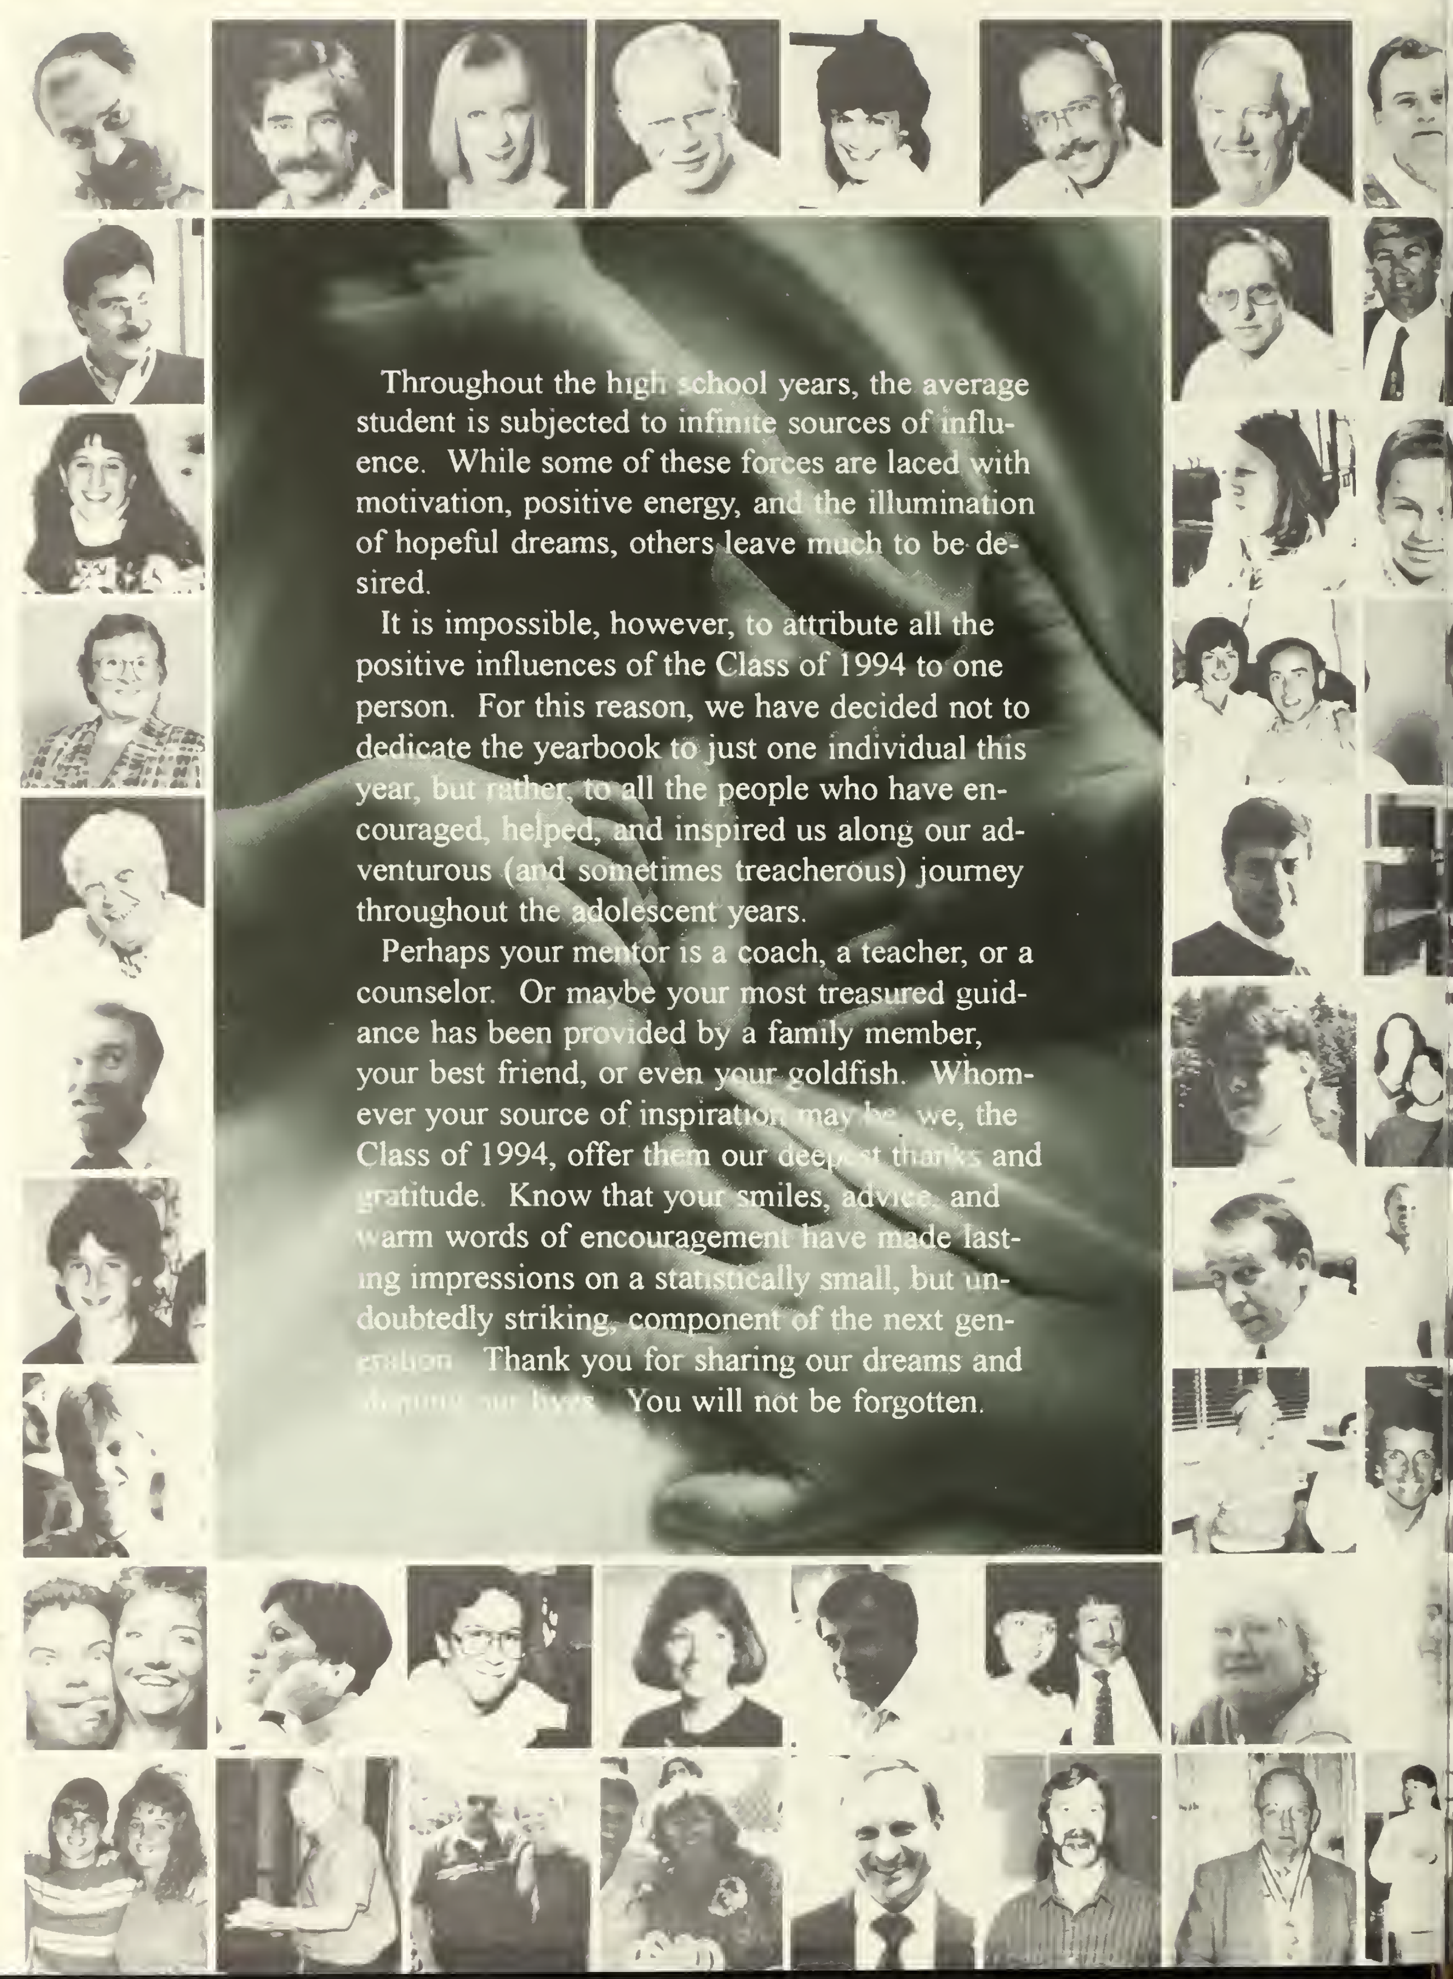
As you read these lines, some of you might be a might bit upset that there is a big, fat, yellow bus on the cover of your senior yearbook. But fear not campers, for, hopefully after reading this you will be able to relate to this theme just as we (the yearbook staff) have.

The bus. Lots of different people have strutted down these dust filled halls of Masco. Many of different styles, backgrounds and odors, but, no matter what, each and every one of them rode the great big yella fella.

The people. Remember back to that first day of school? A bunch of bright-eyed and rosy cheeked class of 1994 waited anxiously for the bus. Yes, I recall that the first bus ride was the coolest thing since Kermit the Frog. Over the years we've changed; gotten older, fallen in and out of love and love again (hopefully), grown hair in unfamiliar places, etc., but the one thing has remained constant in our progression to woman and manhood was the bus. In the sleet (sometimes), in the rain (hopefully), and in the snow (with God's help) the bus always arrived on time (more or less, mostly less). The bus, where a kid's social status could be made or crushed, where the wonders of the birds and bees were discovered, and of course, countless hours of homework were done.

As ape turned into man, kid turned into adult, so in memorium to that rolling rock of Gibraltar, we've entitled this year's yearbook, THE LAST BUST STOP. All Aboard!!!



Throughout the high school years, the average student is subjected to infinite sources of influence. While some of these forces are laced with motivation, positive energy, and the illumination of hopeful dreams, others leave much to be desired.

It is impossible, however, to attribute all the positive influences of the Class of 1994 to one person. For this reason, we have decided not to dedicate the yearbook to just one individual this year, but rather, to all the people who have encouraged, helped, and inspired us along our adventurous (and sometimes treacherous) journey throughout the adolescent years.

Perhaps your mentor is a coach, a teacher, or a counselor. Or maybe your most treasured guidance has been provided by a family member, your best friend, or even your goldfish. Whomever your source of inspiration may be, we, the Class of 1994, offer them our deepest thanks and gratitude. Know that your smiles, advice, and warm words of encouragement have made lasting impressions on a statistically small, but undoubtedly striking, component of the next generation. Thank you for sharing our dreams and shaping our lives. You will not be forgotten.

We finally made it, we're seniors. It's been a long and hard journey that wasn't always fun and games. To Sulli, Zach, Dave, Jeff, Dan, Moose, Jim and everyone else, keep in touch and do well at everything you do. To the people at M.B. your all good people so stay in school and get out of that place. Dairy #1, Sulli Sullute there's a Captain on board. There's always room for one more D's

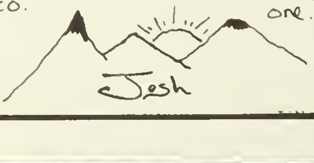
GRATEFUL DEAD

What a long strange trip it's been. So many things to say but don't know how. Jess, I love you for ever. Lissa see you in the loony house. To my freinds you know who you are, good luck and stay in touch. Chris freed white horse. I'm burnt and think I'm going to die. C.R.A.M. Bushwacking M.T. Washington 3:00 A.M. (Good times). P.P. corners, coolness. P.P. CR. J.M. B.H. I think theres a toll aheah B.H. sleeping with wet towels 10°-. Shawangunk's, living in the trooper. what's that smell? Gonna sled Tuckerman's, then I'm going to die, maybe next time! Bivy on EL CAP with 200 bingers in me. Chris Appalacian's calling 94' K2 someday so keep climbing and don't sleep to much. Hard cores and vulgarians are the best. Thank you mom & Dad I am your hell but you loved it, Good luck Amie. Chris stay insane pete get insane. 2011 i'll be 28,250 F.T. see ya later masco. Take it crazy every-one.



Josh

Turn on your lovelight... and leave it on! So many roads we all travel, where we'll end up who knows? I've got a feeling, though, that we'll all be together again someday, in Heaven.

Don't fail, in all your journey's, to reach for that primal energy, to go for it all. Remember yourself and practice compassion.

If you think about it, there's more to it all than the regular rap. There's you and me, and something Divine makes it all possible. There's something out there, that makes love possible.

The future's here. We are it.
We are on our own.

SMILE!

Ralph Bachli

Kara (Pop-over Girl) Angelica's holds so many memories (look back and laugh) I'll remember our long talks, GWTW came alive. Do you want a baygul? Jen (I had to sit next to the new girl in 5th grade) we've been friends ever since. Laura - we made it through Montreal, we can make it through anything. I hope you'll always be one of my best friends. Janeen Dance Chica Bebe Dance Shaaazam. Allison our English project was the best. A mushroom, pepper and extra cheese pizza sounds good. My B-day was the best this year (Thanx everyone). Michele I hope you will treasure you Piggy B-day gift, and maybe use it someday. Shawneen I would have never made it through Chem without you. BBC. Dawn - Good Luck with Sean. Let's go whale watching again. To my sisters (Lauren, Cheryl, Erin) you have all inspired me I admire and Love you all. thanks Mom + Dad I Love you.

It feels like the end, but it's only just begun. So many people to thank, and so little time. Where do I begin?
Julie B.-- "I have no teeth and I like you!
Jen W.-- Harrison Ford is the definition of a god, and he sure looks HOT in tighty-whiteys!
Katie-- Art class has never been so much fun. Peeling the paper gunk off our shirts and the glue off our fingers- at least it gave us something to do in Trig class. And thanx for the lessons in culture.....
Janeen- Let's go bowling.... and Laura- thanx for putting up with me.
And to Mr. G-- Eat your heart out!
Ingrid, we've been to hell and back again, and now we can finally kiss it good-bye
Plenty of times to look back on and smile... Graffiti at Midnight, "What are you girls smoking?".... "Nothing! Just pine needles, officer." "You know when you can see it, but can't really see it?" I guess I lost you there. Long conversations about everything and nothing. "Thank You" isn't good enough, but words never are.
Dave-- "Today is the greatest day I've ever known. Can't live for tomorrow, I might not have that long." I guess I should start living by those words and stop looking so far into the future. Have you ever felt that time flies by so quickly, that it's constantly slipping through your fingers, yet at the same time, it won't go by quick enough? I know that sometime I'll be able to grab onto it, and when I do, I hope that you'll be there for the ride I love you Dave and I know I always will.
Mom, Dad, Dina, Joanna and David... Thanks for the support. I never could have done it without you. I love you all.

Div. 2 girls' state soccer semifinal

Ferullo helps save Masconomet, 2-1

By Jeff Horrigan
SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE

EASTON - Lauren Ferullo wouldn't have minded if Masconomet girls' soccer coach Jim Murphy suddenly decided to call an end to the goaltender rotation he had employed during the regular season and state tournament.

After watching sophomore Alyssa Sadowski face intense pressure from Duxbury's relentless offense throughout the first half yesterday, junior Ferullo wouldn't have complained if she didn't get the call for the second half.

"I was very nervous," Ferullo said. "They really came out shooting."

It was Ferullo who made Duxbury queasy in the second half by making 10 spectacular saves, allowing Masconomet to sneak into Saturday's state championship game with a 2-1 victory.

"She must have felt that she was in a shooting gallery," Murphy said. "They just had quality shots, one after another after another. We were panicking, but she kept her cool and kept us in the game."

Duxbury outshot Masconomet, 18-6. Had Ferullo not come up big, Duxbury would have romped.

"As far as soccer skills and style of play the better team didn't win," Murphy said. "But that doesn't mean we're not going to show up on Saturday."

"We had the better play," concurred Duxbury coach Pat Shea. "We just didn't capitalize when we could have and should have."

Duxbury (20-3), which had the first seven shots, got on the scoreboard first when freshman Tracy Fanning beat Sadowski with a booming kick from the top left corner of the penalty area at 22:15.

Masconomet (22-0) managed to tie it by halftime despite putting only two shots on net in the first 40 minutes. Becky Blaeser, who came in with 46 goals, was shadowed by Duxbury stopper Kristin Lucier all game but managed to set up the tying goal. The junior forward crossed the ball from the right corner, and freshman Stephanie McArdle headed it past netminder Erin Gorman.

Masconomet scored the winner just under 16 minutes into the second half when halfback Jen Daly knocked a direct kick into the upper right corner from 37 yards out.

"I was just praying, 'Please go in,'" Daly said.

A higher authority may have answered that one. Ferullo answered the rest.

"It was nice being famous for a day."

It's been a long haul, but we seem to have made it in one piece. Hell of a ride if you ask me. Thanks to all of you who shared it with me, I know it wasn't always easy. There are so many memories that I'll carry with me always.

Liz (or should I say Binky) you always could make me laugh. How about dinner at my house this Friday? The whole family will be there. Tori, Sarah & Jenn, O.M.B., this afternoon at 2:30, I'll distract Beck. Tori, I swear the hammock won't break. By the way, look out for snowplows, they're dangerous!

Sarah Jefferson—I mean Jose Pepe-- I mean Jen Bertoak, long live the D.C.! Cherish the sacred memories. Kate, whenever you feel frustrated, there's always Edie, "I quit, I give up." Sarah L., who would of known back in fourth grade, that the weird little kid who claimed to be a robot would become one of my best friends? Sledding, Steven's Pond (Where's the raft?), downhill skiing with X-C skis, Jiffy muffins, the creek ("I feel like I'm in the Twilight Zone"), our Atari game collection rules! Beck, where do I start? You've been the person I can always count on to believe in me and stand by me. I don't know where I'd be without you. We've had too many good times to remember them all. Alvins, Bio lab (Aww man, don't tell me you broke that too!/ Hey, those are my goggles!), "Wait a minute, let me get this straight, I lock the doors but I leave the windows open?" Thanks putting up with me, I love ya pal! Alyss, how's the Blistex? Still working? Tad, just thinking of you brings a smile to my face. I must admit, even though I'm the ultimate Jeopardy champ, you will always be the original punk! Salisbury Beach, meeting relatives (they always have good pictures to show), by the way, I hope your graduation speech is ready. Thanks for always being there for me. I love you! Dave

Mom and Dad,
I LOVE YOU!!

START ● So... How about them Bruins? Well, Tavon and me was walkin and walkin' and walkin' in the mall and we came upon a door #3 under the table w/ Christine and Jim at prom 91. A question for Kim B. Do you see better when its cold out?'' I can. my interests include: fishing for clams w/ pearls, eating baked fried chicken. and "flipping flocks of cows." There are so many people I want to thank. First... Thank you Kevin Galeucia! Yes I will... Because... Just because! Love you! Shawncen Casey... thanks a bunch... I couldn't have made it without you and your "num-chucks." You're a good friend. Thanx T.B. Gwen, cm, Alayne Tavon... All my parents... and you know who you are... mrs. casey, mrs. Steuer, mrs. OHara and mrs. Dinn. Thant friend. 'and No, Gramps, I Love you guys! (some parents don't count!) Remember me... I'm a Thespian... hi. here we are. the end of the beginning. the beginning of the end. feel unscathed cold kiss. your only urge. many as self can only never on me exit through. spell it out. i am jeffo (they told me to say it).

thanks to: mom/dad/kate/ those good friends & few teachers who helped me survive and enjoy - you know who you are. no thanks- everyone else who ruined - you'll get what you deserve.

and now as i prepare to depart, a few words about our deceased beloved. vomit the apple. set free the knowledge. you have life now live it. we are the last of the X. we will see 2000. i used to be somebody. now i'm nothing. words of final advice: the slave thinks he is released from bondage only to find a stronger set of chains.

Thanks for everything Masco, I had a lot of fun the 6 years I was here. Thanks mom, dad, and Charlie for all your help. Good luck for all of the rest of the Graduating 1994 students. Thanks DR, R, CA, RS, SF, JC, ZA, DM, and MM. Good Luck M.M, SO, and CU in your future years.

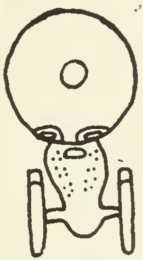
Well goodbye Masco, it's off to the final frontier... life. To those who leave with me I wish happiness and good fortune. There were many of you I didn't know as well as I wanted to and even less I was really friends with, but I still wish you all the best. To those I leave behind, I hope you have as much patience as I did. To the teachers I say thank-you for the good start you gave me.



So just remember these three statements...
"Peace and long life,"
"Live long and prosper."
"Spock, let's kick some Romulans."

Circle- you've given me so many memories I'd hate for this year to be good-bye. I never thought it was possible to have such great friends, could we get any closer. Remembering all this I can't help but cry, thinking of having to let go as we're off to college. # SUPERLATIVES JUST ARE

Halloween Party

What do Barney, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Chia Pet, and Chinese Dolls all have in common?

They were all seen tearing up the dance floor at the Senior Halloween Party. The party was attended by more than 110 seniors, all dressed in creative and elaborate costumes fit for any masquerade.

Marty Dinn and Keri Nicholson, dressed as Sigmund Freud and a Freudian Slip, garnered the prize for "Best Couple", while T.T. Nteta was declared to be the "Funniest" in his Fat Albert attire. Kevin Doherty swept away the competition for "Scariest" dressed as a French maid, and Danielle Gray hopped home with the prize for "Best Look-alike" as the spitting image of the Energizer bunny. Alex Evans was crowned "Most Original" in her homemade flower pot costume.

Being the first strictly senior function of the year, the Halloween party helped to set the stage for a fun and exciting (and somewhat spooky) senior year.

Holiday Party

While the wind was whipping outside, things were heating up on the dance floor inside the Village Green, in Danvers, where the senior class gathered to spread the holiday spirit of enthusiasm and good cheer.

The festivities were kicked off by Heather MacLean, who serenaded the guests with her rendition of "Winter Wonderland" during dinner. After her energetic performance, which many claim was worthy of a Grammy, the dance floor filled, and many remained here for the remainder of the evening.

There was a brief break in the dancing during which some students participated in a Yankee Swap, and received small gifts which were both useful and entertaining.

Overall, the evening promoted an aura of lightheartedness and fun, and most students departed basking in the Yuletide spirit.

Prom

Oh, What A Night!!!

"Oh, What A Night" was the theme for 1993 Junior-Senior Prom, and what a night it was! Masco students arrived at the Danversport Yacht Club on the evening of May 7, 1993 dressed to the nines, and ready for a night of fun and excitement. Dinner soon gave way to dancing, the Yacht Club was transformed into a dance club as students demonstrated their expert hip-hop moves. The crowns of King and Queen were bestowed upon Mike Crocker and Sarah Lodewick later in the evening. Soon after, students departed in automobiles ranging from stretch limos to Jalopies to continue the festivities elsewhere.

Freshmen

Walking off to the bus stop early in September as a "shmen", you wonder if your new Gap jeans and L.L. Bean backpack are cool enough for a high school student. As the bus approaches, you take a deep breath and hope you will not trip and fall as you walk up the stairs and choose your seat. You wonder if you'll ever learn the difference between B and C wing. But fear not kiddies, your journey has just begun and will be full of many great experiences.

Sophomore

A one-year veteran on the bus and of high school, you have pretty much got down "the ropes" at school. By now, you know your locker combination by heart, recognize the difference between B and C wing, and understand how to act cool. Yet you are still in for an adventurous year as you struggle through more Shakespeare and modern world history with Mr. Brown. However, you can look forward to the next step of your climb up the hierarchy at Masco and your opportunity to plan the prom, take SATs, and file through loads of college catalogs. Take full advantage of your care-free days, Kiddies, because before you know it, you'll be on your final bus ride.

You arrive at the bus stop on time and look around at the timid underclassmen who anxiously await the bus. As you mount the bus, you hear laughter and screeching and wonder how many days there are until you get your liscence and you don't have to rely on Sparky the bus driver to get you to school. But you realize this is your junior year, probably the most important year of your high school journey. Keep your head held high and rejoice as you are now upperclassmen.

Homecoming

While it may be argued by most seniors that more fun was had destroying the underclassmens cafeteria decorations and consequently hiding from a rampaging Mr. Doliber beneath the lawn equipment, than at the actual dance and games, it can be agreed upon that Homecoming was an event to remember.

Not only was it the first year that the senior class was disqualified from both the decorating and half-time skit competitions (due to the aforementioned crime committed by the seniors), but it was also distinct in that almost 50% of the Homecoming Court was absent from the dance at which they were honored. This was due to the fact that some members left the dance early and were not permitted to re-enter when the time came for the Court to be announced.

Nevertheless, the titles (if not the crowns), of King and Queen were bestowed upon T.T. Nteta and Jennifer Stump, who presided over a court not entirely present in body, but certainly in spirit.

This spirit was evident at all of the sports games the following day, when students of all ages cheered on Masco's teams as they faced the competition, and in many cases, emerged victorious.

POWDERPUFF

Threats are made. The referees are bribed. The rivalries heat up. Finally, the females of Masconomet will get to play like the guys. The senior girls take on the rookie juniors for a friendly game of "flag" football to determine who's got what it takes. The patient coaches watch their golden girls carry out their plays and have a lot of fun while they're at it. Some come just to play, some for recreation, some to win and some plainly for revenge. The mix makes a game full of competition, excitement and most of all . . . fun.

Justice: A notorious marital

THIS IS THE STORY OF A man, a woman, a fillet knife and a penis. In all its horrifying and fascinating detail, it unfolded last week in a Virginia courtroom.

Early on the morning of June 23, one John Wayne Bobbitt returned to his apartment just outside Washington. According to his wife, Lorena, he proceeded to rape her. (He denies it.) He then fell asleep. "He always has an orgasm and doesn... for me," she told

Frolics

These Are Days

This years Senior Frolics was an experience which we will always remember. Not only was it a weekend of fun and laughter, but it was also the first time that the Class of 1994 truly bonded to produce a show that was exciting , hilarious and, of course, tasteful.

Almost every senior participated in the festivities, attending practices for a week before the show which sometimes lasted until 11:00 pm. The spirit of class unity throughout the week was amazing, and many new friends were made, while old friendships were renewed.

Some of the favorite skits were "Sprockets," "J Crew," "Hormones," and Mike Eagan's portrayal of Mr. Doliber, while "Eating Worms," "Mama," and both chorus lines were also unforgettable. The talent acts were also very impressive.

Overall, the most striking aspect of the production was the way in which all seniors took a whole week out of their busy schedules to work and have fun together. All who participated should feel proud and lucky to be a member of the class of 1994. (Hey, maybe there are somethings we will miss about this place!)

SURE, WE CAN LEARN the First ten numbers from counting on fingers OR WATCHING SESAME STREET, but WHERE ELSE COULD ONE PICK UP SUCH TIDBITS AS the QUADRADIC EQUATION OR WHICH MUSHROOMS WE SHOULDN'T EAT? TEACHERS, our FACULTY FRIENDS, bring the MAGICAL WORLD OF LEARNING to LIFE INFRONT OF OUR VERY EYES. Even IF WE OCCASIONALLY DISAGREE, ONE MUST ADMIRE PEOPLE WHO put up WITH hELL-SPAWN STUDENTS ALL DAY AND COME BACK FOR MORE. WELL, HERE'S TO THE OLDEST KIDS ON THE BUS ............ THE FACULTY.

ACADEMIC TEAMS

Some say academic teams aren't real teams because they use brains instead of brawn. But the members of these teams are secure in the knowledge that winning meets takes more effort than it takes to win a preseason football or soccer game. It isn't uncommon for Masco's Science, Math, and Future Problem Solvers Teams to go undefeated in a season, and the Model U.N. team to sweep the awards at Harvard, Georgetown, and New York. Why don't they ever receive any respect? An answer to be answered another day by another person, but no one can deny the impact its had upon its participants.

Said Danielle Gray, "Academic teams are an anecdote of life, we live and learn, and learn and live, and one day use that knowledge for the betterment of humankind".

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

These are the students who take the time to care about the little things. They worry about the tedious school issues that sometimes slip between the cracks. The student council also heads up the time consuming fund raisers such as the coupon book sales, candygrams, and Jello Wrestling. Those perky, prevalent, problem solvers raise most of the money for the "fun" activities at Masco; for example dances.

These students spread themselves amoungst various committees, each striving to make a difference toward the well being of the student body. Because they are a swell bunch of people, the student council funds and organizes the Saint Patricks Day dinner for the elderly in our glorious Tri-town area. They pick up the slack and they get the job done.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

While Masconomet is often recognized for its superior academics and sports, there is another side of Masco life which is less publicized, but by no means less important. Many Masconomet students are involved in community service which not only benefits society, but also helps students learn more about themselves and others.

One such organization is the Thomas Jefferson Forum, a facet of many volunteer opportunities ranging from serving food to the needy to tutoring at elementary schools to serving as an exemplary Big Brother or Sister for youngsters.

Peer Education students' discuss social issues and effectively distribute pertinent information to the entire student body and community. They do so through forums, workshops, and meetings in which speakers, productions, and outside resources are employed in order to educate.

The Students for Environomental Action (SEA) aim to better our piece of the world. By organizing large scale recycling at school and examining the North Shore's own environmental conditions, the SEA is improving not only the environment, but also the quality of our personal lives.

The National Honor Society is a driving force behind community service and positive change in the Tri-town area and beyond. Besides offering free tutoring to Masco students', the NHS also runs Blood Drives for the Red Cross and an annual phone-athon for the American Heart Association.

These four service groups teach students that volunteer work is an invaluable source of self-satisfaction and pride and that students really can make a difference.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Spanish, French, German, and Russian Language Clubs are known to some as the clubs who have food days after school and don't speak English. To others they are a way to further what they learn in textbooks, extending their knowledge about the culture of their languages. The language clubs have been active once again this year, holding the annual International Dinner, hosting exchange students from Russia and France, and holding club activities ranging from the French bowling trip to the Spanish-French food day. French club President Doug Wallace best sums up the language club experience when he said, "Its a cultural experience for only the elite who choose to further their knowledge of their second language".

WBMT

Masconomet's own radio station located at 88.3 of your FM dial has for the past few years been providing Masco with the sweet sounds of music. You might have listened to it on your way home on the bus (because you can't get in any other stations). If you have, you would know that WBMT is no longer the safe haven for top 40 rock and roll. That's right the station has finally begun to branch out, including in its programming the Rap show and the Metal shop.

The station had a little trouble this year as the beginning of broadcasting was delayed due to the destruction of a power transmitter. The station didn't begin on schedule, but premiered two new shows. "What's become of the baby", a show intended for Deadheads, and the all new House Party show. With its dedication to new programming, WBMT has begun to branch out past the limits of the Tri-town community, and is increasing in popularity. "Our diversity in programming shows the diversity of types of music found at Masco, and we're happy to represent those types", said station manager Matt the Swinging Cat Baldassarri.

So when you can't find anything to listen to, check out WBMT 88.3 and you might like what you hear.

BANDS

Perhaps the most talented "band" of students at Masconomet are not the incredible scholars or winning athletes, as we often hear, but are the Masconomet High School students who comprise the "Bands". Ranging from concert, to jazz, to wind ensembles, to Pit and Pep, these students are dedicated to their music. Whether they are blarring out "Stand up and Cheer" at a football game or soloing during a major competition, Masco's band students have a lot of pride in the sounds and moods they create.

The Bands compete on a district and state level, and, in the process, have earned a great deal of respect from the top music high schools in the state. Recently, department head and high school band director Randy O'Keefe was named the assistant director of the District Jazz Ensemble, (which is no small honor!). When asked about the Jazz Band, junior Eric Enos had this to say, "We @$%@! rock!" Sophomore Justin Georgi described what it is like to be in band best when he said, "It's like skinning blue rabbits, but more fun!"

CHORALE

If one strools past the auditorium during sixth period, one may be lucky enough to hear the heavenly sound of the Masconomet Chorale eminating from the great Henry F. Long Memorial Auditorium.

The members of this group happily sing their lives away under the conduction of Ms. Shane. Senior John Cotti sums Chorale up best, when he stated, "We just really like to sing . . . no really, I'm serious."

This year, the Chorale society participated in many concerts ranging from formal recitals to pops concerts to brown bag lunch performances. They were also given the prestigious honor of being invited to sing in Disney World over spring break, where they surely rocked.

The music department at Masconomet is one of the best in the state and many times deserves more respect than it normally receives. Every time the Chorale wins a competition or performs well in a concert, they bring a great deal of honor and respect to Masconomet.

THEATER

Prestige, honor, and tradition are what the Masconomet Theater Troupe is all about. Year after year these thespians have delivered "stellar", "super-cool" performances that rival their Broadway counterparts. And, this year was no exception, with the classic "do-gooder" Don Quixote chasing around the make-believe windmill sets in Man of La Mancha, and the challenging Children of a Lesser God, performed in sign language. Senior Marty Dinn had this to say when asked what the highlight of his theatrical career at Masconomet was, "I think it was probably being able to wear tights in public during A Chorus Line." Also, this year, the thespians performed a play about AIDS written by a group of Masconomet students. Hats off to this creative and talented group of students!

Cheerleading

Throughout the fall season the Masconomet cheerleaders could always be counted on to pep up the football crowd. No matter what the score or temperature was, these girls were always there to raise the spirits of the mighty Chieftains and their fans.

Led by tri-captains Torrie Clough, Heather Lindquist, and Becky Washburn, the squad impressed spectators with their new and improved choreography, and provided a spirit of optimism and unity for both players and fans.

During the winter months, Stacey Coffin and Jenn Croteau led the basketball/hockey squad, which cheered for all of Masco's home games. The squad competed in the Cape-Ann League Cheering Competition as well.

While the cheerleaders are not always given due credit for their hard work, we applaud them for promoting a sense of school spirit, and sticking by our teams through thick and thin. Their smiling faces and enthusiastic shouts have certainly helped all our sports teams defeat their rivals.

BOYS' X-COUNTRY

The Masconomet Mens' Cross-Country team once again tallied an undefeated season in 1993 with a 10-0 record while achieving the CAL championship for the second straight year. The team also won the CAL Open and placed second in the Catholic Memorial Invitational Meet. Captains Mike Crocker, Brian Deveney, and Jason Tremblay held this team together through all the good and bad times. "Without their guidance, this team would have fallen apart," said senior Tatishe Nteta.

A major surprise came from first year runner Courtney Green, who placed third on the team. "Courtney is a true natural athlete, I'm sure he would have performed outstandingly in any other sport," said Crocker. Second year runner Douglas Quinn also performed superbly for the Chieftains, placing sixth. "The only words which describe the Mighty Quinn are vocal and amazing," according to Christopher Herbert. The team's top runner was junior Josh Cotter who placed sixteenth in the invitational All-State Meet.

Recreational activities enjoyed by the Cross-Country team included mud fights, the annual seventh man race (won by John Fulton), bush jumping, and of course wrestling. "I'm not on the team, but I hear its pretty fun," commented senior Marc Nordstrom.

"We had an amazing season, performing beyond all exceptations. We couldn't have had an undefeated season without superior coaching and dedication," said Deveney. Good luck to Fulton and Cotter, who will lead the team next year

GIRLS' X-COUNTRY

"Being a bunny means you like the smell of cigars, you eat lots of pasta, you never give up and NEVER look back."

With so much team spirit, how could the ladies not emerge from the season with a perfect record of 8-0-0?

Under the leadership of tri-captains Julie Bruno, Lindsay MacAuley, and Cara Fauci, Casey's Bunnies not only achieved an umblemished record, but also ran away with the CAL championship.

"We ran, not only for ourselves, but for each other," comments MacAuley, "team dynamics pull us through close races."

Next year the pack will be led by All-Star Amy Sousa and Kelly Carmody.

And to all departing seniors remember, "once a bunny, always a bunny!"

FIELD HOCKEY

Masconomet's "chicks with sticks" had a tough season in terms of victories on the field, but were definitely a team full of spirit, enthusiasm, and togetherness. Coach Finnigin stated, "The team of 1993 consists of players with talent and ability " Unfortunately, the record of the unsung Chieftains does by no mean reflect the effort and spirit of the team.

The Chieftains were hindered by harsh injuries and sicknesses which plagued four of their key players. Captains Danielle Gray, Allison Greaves, and Mo Bruno led the team and helped the lady Chieftains improve and stay focused throughout the season, despite the hardships faced. "Even though we didn't win many games, we still had fun and our attitudes off the field as friends helped us accomplish some of our goals," said Greaves

Offensively, the team was lead by CAL Player-of-the-Year Gia Ventola, Gray, Bruno, and All star Jenn Guarnera. All Star Greaves, senior Keri Nicholson, and senior goalie Kara Giangrasso were the backbone of the girls' defense. The Coaches Award went to junior defenseman Angie Piecuch and the Team Award to Gray. The team's upperclassmen helped the younger team members improve their skills over the season and served as an encouraging force for the team

Highlights off the field included the teams' wild trip to Bertucci's and the Lightbowns' as well as their car wash, bake sales, and of course championship in both of the Tri-Town Pancake Breakfasts.

"We worked extremely hard over the season and in the process formed strong friendships. We proudly played for each other because "friends are friends forever (MWS)," said Gray.

Best of luck to next years' captains Angie Piecuch and Leigh Olmstead who will carry on the tradition of pride and togetherness of Masco Field Hockey

FOOTBALL

The football team's record certainly does not reflect the amount of talent and skill which its players possessed.

"Even though we didn't achieve everything we felt we could have, we still found ways to have fun, and it was an experience that we all benefited from," comments senior quarterback Paul Caron.

Under the guidance of coaches Jim Pugh and Dennis Puleo, and led by tri-captains Heath Goudreau, Dan Ginley, and Tad LeBlond, the Chieftains finished the season with a record of 2-8-0.

The team's high spirits far outweighed their sorrows, however, which was exemplified by the aggressive performances of departing seniors Goudreau, Ginley, LeBlond, Caron, Marcell Smith, Ed Simon, Brandon Brown, and Alden Losee.

Goudreau concludes, "Even though it wasn't a successful season as far as our record is concerned, it was still a lot of fun listening to Scottie."

GOLF

Finishing the season with an incredible record of 14-1-3, and a CAL Championship, the Masconomet Golf Team once again proved that in the words of co-captain Chad Dodd, "Real men and Heather golf."

Dodd's counterpart, co-captain Jeff Cahill agrees that the season was spectacular. "This year has been great and a lot of fun, and winning the CAL championship made the season for the whole team."

Under the direction of Coach Roger Lauzon, the team traveled to the Northern State Team Tournament where they placed third. The team qualified for the State Tournament as well.

Next year's team will surely continue the winning tradition under the leadership of newly-elected captain John McGowan.

Departing senior, Mike Eagan, sums up the season with the last words, "Like,. uh, it was fun!"

BOYS' SOCCER

Once again, the boys' soccer team upheld their winning tradition at Masconomet. Led by captains Steve Blanchette, Peter McHugh, and Bizz Reuther, and coached by Lenny Emmons, the team finished the season with a 13-3-2 record and a CAL championship.

Senior defense man Tyler Bentley wraps up the season saying, "We could have been undefeated, but as long as we won the CAL again, I feel we had a great season."

They certainly did, consistently and aggressively defeating their opponents until they were stopped in the quarter finals of the state tournament by Malden Catholic after an intense shootout.

Offensively, the team was led by All-League players Blanchette and Reuther, along with All-Stars Tim Lull and Duncan Reece. Adam Theriault, Steve Brochu, and Evan Reece also provided strong support.

Defensively, All-Star goalie McHugh and goalie Scott Robertson had a great season in allowing only fourteen goals over the regular season. All-Star Greg Pinkham and Reuther, Lull, Bentley, and junior Matt Bryson were also dominant defensive forces.

Next year will undoubtedly bring another incredible season for the boys, as Bryson, Reece, and Tyson Waterman lead the Chieftains.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Masconomet Lady Chieftains continued their tradition of excellence finishing with a regular season record of 15-2-1, playoff record of 3-1, Division II North Championship, and Eastern Mass Championship. "We went a lot further than anyone expected. This team has more heart than any other that I've been on," said All-League Player of the Year, EMGSCA Div II All Star, and tri-captain Becky Blaeser.

This team mixed experience and youth to accomplish their winning season. Tri-captains Betsy Smallman, Sarah Lodewick, and Blaeser provided leadership and guidance to this young team. "On the outside it looks like we had a very successful season, but it was hard to keep the team focused, and our captains did just that," said senior fullback Mandi Greaves.

The talent of the underclassmen also contributed to the winning season, as stopper Blaire Daly and sweeper Elizabeth Elias were All Star selections and Stephanie McArdle was selected as an all League player and EMGSCA Division II All Star. Other underclassmen contributors were Kristen Costello at halfback and all Star Caitlin Whelton. "We lost a lot of talent last year, and these underclassmen really did a great job filling big shoes and exceeding people's expectations," said Smallman.

In goal, the tandem of All-Stars Alyssa Sadowski and Lauren Ferullo were once again stellar, allowing only ten regular season goals. "We couldn't have done it without them," replied senior fullback Beth Hunter.

Good luck to next year's captains Michelle Elias, Sadowski, and Whelton as they attempt to continue the winning tradition . . . kickssa, kickssa, kickssa!

VOLLEYBALL

"This was our best season in a long time  Our team had so much talent and skill, but most importantly everyone played with heart", says Colleen McKenna, co-captain of the Volleyball team.

Along with co-captain Anne Marie Flynn, McKenna led the team through a successful season, ending with a record of 10-8-0.

"It was a great season, we all worked hard  It was a let down not making it to the States, but next year will be great", comments junior Athena Mandragouras.

All-Star players were Flynn and McKenna and McKenna was also chosen as an All-League player  Other dominant forces on the court were departing seniors Samantha Horfield, Amy Ogden, Jen Williams, and Michelle Therrien.

Good luck to next year's captains, Flynn and Maureen Mortalo, who will be sure to maintain Masco's competitive edge.

Boys' Basketball

The boys' basketball team had a tough season this year, finishing with a record of 5-13. Many of their games were close in score, and their record does not even begin to reflect the amount of talent and determination which the team possessed.

Senior captains Dan Ginley and Pete McHugh were driving forces behind the team's spirit and performance. Ginley was named as an All-League Player and led the team consistantly in point scoring. Other high-scorers were sophomore guard Kevin Costello, freshman Eric Hawkes, junior Chris Richardson, and McHugh.

Departing seniors are Ginley, McHugh, Tad LeBlond, Greg Pinkham, Paul Caron, and Mike Eagan. This year's Team Award went to Ginley, and the Coach's Award went to LeBlond.

Captains-elect Richardson and John Foulton will lead a young and talented team to victory next year.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team enjoyed yet another winning season, repeating as CAL champions with a regular season record of 16-4 and a number two seed in the Division II North Playoffs. The girls were one step shy of the Finals, but played at the Boston Garden for the second consecutive year.

This year was highlighted by the team's participation in the Best of the U.S. Tournament in Tennessee during Christmas vacation.

"It was a good experience and we learned a lot from it. Hopefully it prepared us for the state tournament," said tri-captain Maura Curran.

Captains Becky Blaeser, Curran, and Catey Peters led the team through the many highs and lows, providing guidance and leadership to the young team. Having excellent seasons were All-Stars Blaeser, Peters, and Brianne Stepherson.

Next year's team, under the captainship of Peters and Caitlin Whelton, looks as strong as ever as the team retains three of their starting five and has another year of experience under their belts.

Hockey

Masco's varsity hockey team finished the '93-'94 season with a record of 12-9. The Chieftains performed well enough all season to advance to the state tournament, but were knocked out in the first game by Winthrop.

Led by senior captains Dan Marcotte, Andy Gaudet, and Jim Bernhard, the Chieftains maintained their competitive edge all season.

Marcotte had an outstanding season, topping Masco's record of seven hat tricks by scoring eight throughout the season. The leading contributers for the offense were Marcotte, Gaudet, and sophomore John Veccione, while sophomore Ben Canonica and senior Luke Pierce combined for a strong season in net.

Marcotte received the Team Award, and the Coach's Award was bestowed upon Gaudet. All Stars were Marcotte, Gaudet, and Bernhard, and Marcotte was also named as an All-League Player.

Boys' Indoor Track

This years boys' indoor track team had yet another winning season going 5-3, under the leadership of Coach Carletti and co-captains Steve Brochu and Jeff Cahill.

This year the team consisted of many underclassmen who stepped up and made great athletic contributions to the team. Having all-around great seasons were Brochu in the 600, Jim Miller in the 50, Josh Cotter in the mile, and Courtney Green in the 1000. Both Green and Cotter qualified for the All-State competition.

"The season turned out really well. Everyone pulled together making it a great, fun season," said Cahill.

The Team Award was bestowed upon Steve Brochu and the Coach's Award upon Cahill. Congratulations on a great season and best of luck to the returning runners (and throwers!).

Girls' Indoor Track

This year the girls indoor track team finished the season 8-2 with a CAL championship and a second place showing at the Northern Area Meet.

Leading the way for the Chieftains were tri-captains Maureen Bruno, who was undefeated in the 300, Sarah Lodewick, and Tori McCraine. This year a strong group of underclassmen did an excellent job filling in the gaps left by departed seniors. Having superb seasons were Amy Sousa in the mile, Ann-Marie Flynn who broke the school record in the shot put, and Kristeen Cunningham who was undefeated in the 50.

"I thought it was a fantastic season! We did better than anyone expected.: the team was strengthened by contributions from people who never did track before." said Coach Cavallaro.

The Team Award was presented to Maureen Bruno and the Coach's Award to Sarah Lodewick.

Next years season will surely be successful under the captainship of Sousa, Leigh Olmstead, and Angie Piecuch.

Boys' Ski Team

It was a banner year for the Boys' Ski Team, which ended the season with an 8-2 record and finished second in the North Shore Ski League by beating St. John's Prep for the first time ever. Under the leadership of captains Rob Holloway and Dave Neskey, the team won the Interscholastic Race at the end of the season, and advanced five skiers to the state meet at Berkshire East.

Freshman Will Carey was the teams leading point scorer, and competed at states with freshman Kent Geisel, senior Cliff Pracht, Neskey, and Holloway. The boys finished fifth out of fifteen teams.

The Team Award went to Holloway, and Neskey received the Coaches Award. The MVP and Rookie-of-the-Year honors went to Carey, and the League All-Stars were Neskey, Carey, and Geisel.

The team will be sure to blow the competition away next year under captainship of Neskey and Carey.

Girls' Ski Team

The girls' ski team had an excellent season this year, finishing 7-1 and tying Haverhill for the North Shore Ski League Championship. The team also competed in the State Meet, where they placed fifth overall.

Senior captains Heather MacLean and Gia Ventola, and junior captain Meghan Carey led the team to victory at the Interscholastic Race in Bradford. Carey also captured an individual league point title while MacLean reached a new school record for most race points earned in four years. Through the efforts of upperclassmen, the team has been led to three individual league titles.

All-League honors went to Carey, MacLean, and Ventola, and the MVP and Team Award both went to MacLean. Carey received the Coach's Award and freshman Erin McCann was named "Rookie of the Year". Next year'scaptains, Carey and Paige Washburn, will definately lead the team to another fabulous year.

Swimming & Diving

Masco's most wet and wild clan, the co-ed swim team, made a big splash this season with an undefeated record of 10-0 and the Greater Boston League Championship.

Masco records were broken by John Newland, Melissa Sessoms, and Marianne Conlon. The high point scorers for the team were Newland, Ian Doherty, and Chris Laroe for the boys, and Sessoms, Conlon, and Stephanie Jalbert for the girls. The team proceded to send thirteen swimmers to States and Sectionals.

Senior Jen McWeeny, who has been with the team since its beginning, states of her experiences, "It was great to have the opportunity to see the Stambaugh brothers (especially Chris) in speedos".

The Team Award went to co-captain Katy Michaud, and the Coach's Award to Dana Steer. Next year captains-elect, Newland and Sessoms, will carry on the Masco tradition of excellence and once again lead to the team victory.

Wrestling

Masco's wrestling team had a phenomenal season, finishing with an overall record of 12-3 and a CAL record of 6-2. The team placed third in the league, fourth in sectionals, and 10th in states.

Masco sent seven wrestlers to the State Tournament. Here juniors John and Jeremy Perotti and sophomore Jim Spath won medals. John Perotti also qualified for the New England meet as a third-place finisher while his brother Jeremy qualified as an alternate. Senior tri-captains Chad Dodd, Chad Kocur, and Kris Luther also competed at States, along with junior heavy-weight wrestler Chris Knowles.

The Team Award went to Dodd, Coach's Award to Kocur, and the coved "Pig Award" honors were bestowed upon Mike Giglio.

Captains-elect for the '94-'95 season are the Perottis and Knowles. Congratulations on a great season!

Yearbook

Since for most of you the plight of the Yearbook Staff is a mystery, the time has now come to reveal what it is exactly that we do.

For one year (or two), our robust and always perky staff has diligently worked to bring the words and pictures which have shaped this year to all you little Chieftains and Chieftainettes.

We pow-wowed every Thursday night in Mrs. Sanford's room, and occasionally congregated at Sarah Del Torchio's house, where we got great snacks.

Putting together this collection of memories was time consuming, gratifying, computer simulated, picture-taking, pencil pushing, monumental, Dorito- munching work. There were many sacrifices to be made. We had to miss The Simpsons and Seinfeld for the better part of the year (talk about dedication). But in the end, we were able to extricate from all the fights, rushed deadlines, and salsa, a book which we can all take pride in.

Finally, we would like to thank Mrs. Sanford for all her patience, dedication, and her faith in us. Good luck next year "Fungus"!

R.I.P Class of '94.

Jennifer Guarnera

We have all been together for a long time. It is now time for us to part but you will always be in my heart and memory forever. Each one of you is going to make it in your own special way. You have all taught and inspired me. I have been influenced by every step you have taken. I love you all and will always be there for anyone in need of a friend. If you are ever lonely remember the best friend you have is within yourself, without self-confidence you can't be a good friend to anyone. Don't be a part of peer pressure and the resulting statostics. Stop and think about what you have been taught. I hope you have a long and happy life. Thank-you all for making these years times I will always remember.

Before we say good-bye

Special thanks to the following people for teaching and inspiring me.

Mr. Vrettos, thank-you for being so helpful and understanding.

Ms. Finnegan, you have taught me self discipline and how to boo my self-confidence.

Mrs. Sanford, I am sorry for all the trouble we have gone througl You have taught me alot about myself and how tho handle the peopl around me.

Thank-you to the people who have taught me the difference betw good and bad friends. Sometimes the most valuble lessons have to b learned from the most difficult times.

Kerri, Jen, Marianne, Sarah, Alex, Betsy, Heather, Tori, Dan, Ad Doug, Tim, Danielle, Kelly, and Lindsey, at some point you guys hav taught me the meaning of a good friend. We have all been through hardships together, but they have all been a lesson for the future. I never would have been able to make it without you. Thank-you, I lo you all!

Mom, Dad, Laura, and Aimee, you have taught me right from wrong. I will always think of you when I am in times of happiness a sadness. I love you all.

Brian, I have learned more from you than anyone else. You hav taught me to love and to hate. You have influenced every decision I have made in the past three years. I will always love you.

Thank-you to the class of '94 and the yearbook staff. There woul no yearbook without you. Good Luck!

A note from your editors

Special thanks to those individuals who served as sources of inspiration and motivation and have been the wind behind my sails.

Mom, Dad, Bethony, and the rest of my family- Although we may not always be together in location, my heart will alwoys be with you. You all have shown great understanding and have inspired me to excell. I love you all.

1994 Yearbook Staff- Thanks for your long hours and weeks of dedication which have made this book the piece of art that it is!

Jenn- my co-piolet- we made a heck of a team- Good luck!

Mrs. Sanford- your dedication and cooperotion kept us (as individuals and as a staff) sone! Thanks so much!

To my closest friends- Through your examples, I have learned the true meaning of the word friend. Thonks for the irreplacable memories, hours of laughter, and abundant lessons.

Masco Faculty- Mr. Donavel, Mr. Craig, Mr. Brown, Ms. Finn,...Continue to do what you do best--and more!

Kev- We've come so far..you're forever in my heart.

Best of Luck to John McGowan and the other members of the '95 Staff!

Class of 1994- Keep your heads held high and your dreams plentiful!

Danielle Gray

From our first bus ride to our last, the Class of '94 has bonded together and experienced many "adventures" in preparing ourselves for life beyond high school. Personally, each person I have met and formed some sort of relationship with has taught me more about myself, society, and life.

Members of the Class of '94, you can accomplish any goal which you have the heart and courage to strive for. Yet when you fall down, you must pick yourself up because failure comes only to those who are willing to quit. Live your life, dream your own dreams, and don't settle for anything short of happiness- you will only be depriving yourself. Remember that happiness cannot be bought, but comes from your surroundings and those individuals you care about. Appreciate those you are blessed with knowing and take advantage of all the opportunities bestowed upon you. Never compromise your morals or dreams. Although we all go through the same journey in life, we travel along different paths. Be true to your aspirations, dreams, and most importantly yourself as you choose the paths you will take in life. Happy trails...until we meet at the end of our adventure.

SCHOOL BUS
EMERGENCY DOOR
EMERGENCY DOOR
JUST Graduated
BLUE BIRD

Those of you that were a bit mad at the beginning are hopefully now in tears and have fallen in love with our brain child - the bus.

The bus has been so many different things to so many different people. Hopefully we've captured all those feelings in a non-offensive, jovial, and at the same time serious way.

We're all grown up, just as the ape evolved, and throughout our high school career we had to learn everything that man has learned since evolution . . . Well not everything, there is still college. We (the yearbook staff) encourage all of you seniors to take the bus home on the last day of school, just to savor those memories. For as the last bell rings, those memories will be left in the past.

We hope the bus ride was enjoyable and nobody got sick.

Last stop, everybody off!

Bizz..."With you I've learned how to laugh, I've learned how to cry, I've learned how to love, even learned how to lie. You'd think I'd have learned how to tell you goodbye."
I Love You, Lindsey

Mandi-thanks for always being there, I'll always remember mowing the lawn at 9:30, Cradle of Love, accident, etc. Tori-we've been friends for so long, there are so many things to say: RRW New York, Knocking over Santa, learn how to downshift. I'll miss you both. Jenn-you live too far away (jk)
JG, BO, TM, MG, BR, TL...I love you all

Linz, Bizz, & Tim- It was an incredible summer. So many things to say, so little room! ! ! (see square) I'll never forget you-
BC-watch out for those PADIDLES! I love the circus-thanks
To all my friends-- GOOD LUCK-I LOVE YOU-MANDI
